

Wire Cutters

Questions

1. Write three adjectives that could be used to describe the surface of the planet.

2. Why does the small robot wake up?

3. What is the number on the small robot's collection vehicle?

4. How does the small robot know when it has found a piece of green mineral?

5. Which of these dictionary definitions of the word "mine" best describes what the robots are doing?

- Something that belongs to the person speaking. (pronoun)
- A hole in the ground from which materials are removed. (noun)
- Removing a material from the ground or rocks. (verb)
- A type of bomb that is hidden in the ground. (noun)

6. List two ways that the small robot helps the larger robot to collect the green mineral more efficiently.

- ---

7. What causes the two robots to argue?

8. Why does the small robot go into a gap under a rock?

9. Using the words and phrases given, complete this table comparing the two robots;

	Mining Company Name	Source of Power	Method of movement	Shape of plug
Small Robot
Large Robot				