

Countries all around the world - work example ideas

Here are some examples of activities children have done when learning about countries all around the world. Remember that a lot of Early Years learning is done through practical experiences and play, but you can also choose to do some writing and pictures to show what you have been learning! Some children have also uploaded voice notes of speaking and singing in different languages, videos telling us facts about countries and even dancing!

