

Only one of me

Only one of me, only one of you,
Only one of everyone; incredible but true.
Millions of us, none of us the same
God knows every single face and every single name.

Because He's so great, only God can do it.

So great, that's why we sing

So great, I wish everybody knew it,

So great, that's why we worship Him.

Every thought I think and every prayer I pray,
Every cry I cry to Him and everything I say.
The world is full of words, they swirl in space and time,
God's tuned in to all of them, He knows which ones are mine.

Because He's so great, only God can do it.

So great, that's why we sing

So great, I wish everybody knew it,

So great, that's why we worship Him.
