

Tuesday

Look at some of the examples of Informal letters. What do you notice about them.

Go through the PPT and make sure you understand the difference between formal and informal letters.

Then annotate some of the examples of what a good piece of informal letter writing looks like.

Wednesday

Listen to Skellig up to chapter 4.

You will be planning to write a letter as if you are Michael. Imagine you are Michael writing an informal letter to Leakey or Coot. Talk about your new home and what you think of the house. Discuss the shed and what you have discovered.

Thursday

Write your first draft of the letter. Refer to the PPT (PowerPoint) about informal letters to ensure you have included all the features.

Friday

Edit your writing and publish it.
