

I can see the sea.

Focus

A Copy this pattern into your book.

B Copy these letters into your book.

Be careful! All letters start at the top, except for d and e.

Extra

Copy these words into your book.

be see feet meet

bee sea feat meat

Homophones are words that sound the same but have different spellings and meanings.

Extension

Copy the poem below into your book. Underline the words that make the ee sound.

This poor car will take no more!
Hurry, scurry, turn the key,
We're off at last to see the sea.

From 'All Aboard' by Judith Nicholls

