

The Eagle by Alfred Lord Tennyson

He clasps the crag with crooked hands;
Close to the sun in lonely lands;
Ring'd with the azure world, he stands.

The wrinkled sea beneath him crawls;
He watches from his mountain walls,
And like a thunderbolt he falls.

1. '...the wrinkled sea beneath him crawls...'

This is an example of what type of figurative language?

2. Find and copy an example of a simile from the verse.

3. Tick true or false in the following table:

	True	False
The eagle is in a forest.
The eagle's claws are bent.
The eagle is fast.

4. What do you think the eagle is going to do next?
