Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to you regarding the disastrous birthday party you were responsible for organising on Saturday 23rd April.

Firstly, we were promised music and laser lights whilst we bowled. There was definitely music but it has been a while since my 11 year old daughter has enjoyed listening to 'I'm a little teapot'. As for the laser lights, my son could have done a better job with a torch.

Secondly, someone forgot to clean up some juice which had been spilt on the floor. One member of our party slipped over which resulted in a trip to hospital and six weeks with a wrist in plaster.

Thirdly, several children were violently sick after eating the inedible food you provided. The burgers were practically raw and the pizza can only be described as soggy. Then, as if things couldn't have got any worse, some of my daughters presents went missing. No one should be reduced to tears on their birthday.

I require an immediate response to this letter, outlining how you intend to compensate my daughter for having ruined, what should have been, a very special day.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs Jones
