

Alan Peat Sentences

Description: Detail sentence

The strange man: poised and mysterious.

2 pairs sentence

Curious and anxious, frightened and cautious, the driver stopped the car.

3 'ed' sentence

Bored, isolated, heavy-hearted, the girl sat, alone, on the park bench.

If, if, if, then sentence

If the driver didn't offer a lift, if he didn't look at the goggles, if he didn't stop the car, then he would've been alive.

Emotion, (comma)

Overwhelming, the driver was alarmed by the vision in the goggles.

Adjective, same adjective sentence

He was cautious, cautious because he needed to be

3 bad dash question sentence

Greed, weakness, madness – which was Macbeth's worst fault?

Double 'ly' ending sentence

He stood motionlessly and deviously.

Some; others sentence

Some think that he is a noble person; others believe he is sinister.

The more, the more sentence

The more he tried to get some answers, the more curious he became of the identity of the man.