

M.F.L.

In French this week, we'll be building on our knowledge of school subjects and looking at other activities we do in school. Follow the link!

<https://www.french-games.net/frenchlessons?topic=School%20-%20activities&level=primary>

The image shows a screenshot of the French Games website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with four main sections: "1. Start", "2. Lessons", "3. Games", and "4. Tests", each with a right-pointing arrow. A small French flag icon is on the left, and a volume icon is on the right. Below the navigation bar is a large green panel titled "SELECT AN OPTION". Inside this panel, there are several buttons and text elements: a blue button labeled "FULL TUTORIAL All activities" with a white icon of two people; a white button labeled "INTRODUCTION"; a white box containing the text "No tutorial thanks GO TO THE GAMES"; and a yellow button labeled "topics" with a white icon of a person walking. A large white arrow points upwards from the bottom of the green panel. On the left side of the interface, there are two circular icons: one with an 'i' and one with a question mark. At the bottom, there are two small text boxes: "Cafe" on the left and "Choose your tutorial from the options" on the right. Two callout boxes with orange arrows provide instructions: one points to the "FULL TUTORIAL" button and says "Click on the tutorial button", and another points to the "3. Games" section and says "Once you have completed the tutorial and you are confident with the vocabulary, have a go at a game, or even a test."

Once you have completed the tutorial and you are confident with the vocabulary, have a go at a game, or even a test.

Click on the tutorial button