

Key Vocabulary
natural resources	Materials or substances that occur in nature. Not man-made renewable	A natural material that can be replaced once used.
non-renewable	A natural resource that will run out in time.
sustainable	Able to be maintained at a certain rate or level.
fossil fuels	Oil, coal and natural gas. Formed from the remains of plants, animals and other living things a long time ago. A non-renewable natural resource.
raw material	An unprocessed natural resource. A basic material that can be used to produce something else.
carbon neutral	Balancing carbon dioxide emissions with removal or elimination of emissions.
green energy	Energy from natural sources such as the sun, wind, tides, plants, algae and heat.
global	Relating to the whole world biomass	Organic matter that can be used as fuel especially in a power station for the generation of electricity.
turbines	A machine for producing continuous power in which a wheel or motor is made to revolve by a fast-moving flow of water, steam, gas or air.
trade	The action of buying and selling goods and services population	The number of people who live in a particular place population density	The measurement of population per unit area.
food mile	A mile over which a food item is transported during the journey from producer to consumer.

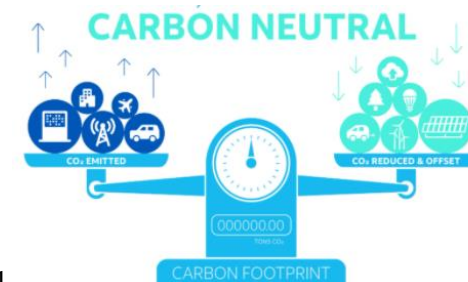

Renewable energy

Fossil fuels

Food miles

Carbon neutral

